Helen Scherrer-Diamond, the "Networking Ninja" * TESTIMONIALS Community Outreach Director for 2 Funeral Homes

"Don't Judge Each Day by the Harvest you Reap, but by the Seeds that you Plant" - Robert Lewis Stevenson

Helen has been a trusted advisor on several different topics. She provided lots of info as we sought to move my 93 yr old Mother-in-Law from inpatient Rehab for broken hip collar bone into a new assisted living facility. Then, sadly after my mother-in-law and husband passed away, she offered advice regarding clothing donations. If only we had not been short sighted and if only we had partaken of her advice regarding post funeral information. Please take advantage so valuable time is not wasted looking for important documents and password logins. No one lives forever and life turns on a dime. Being prepared is so very important. NGG - N. When my Mom moved here from Miami at the age of 86, I knew I had to speak with someone to make plans for her future services. She was in good health at the time and we enjoyed 10 years of time together here in Atlanta and when she passed - because of our pre-planning with Helen Scherrer Diamond - my family and I could focus in on celebrating our time with my Mom and be at peace that all the necessary arrangements were already made and the team at the funeral home stepped in and took over. Helen has a true heart and the knowledge for making it simple for loved ones when a family member physically leaves us. My family truly appreciates all the help from Helen, and we strongly suggest doing all your pre-planning before an emotional loss. I have pre-planned my personal arrangements and now I do not have to think about it and my children won't either. Thank you, Helen. - M. C.

My wife and I decided to pre-pay our burial expenses so our children wouldn't have to deal with it when our respective times come. Since we are Jewish, Dressler's seemed to be the logical choice for us. Helen Diamond and Eddie Dressler were very helpful, warm and caring. We made the right choice and our kids really appreciated our thoughtfulness in doing this. - T & N U.
